

The Program

Well if it is the first week in June, it must be time for us to be back in Ocean City, Maryland at the beautiful ocean front Dunes Manor Hotel for our next Mid-Atlantic Intergovernmental Audit Forum. Our meeting will run from June 1 thru 3 this year. As always, this will be a Group-Live offering and the objective for this forum is to provide training on a variety of auditing topics. The Program Committee has identified an impressive list of topics that will have something of interest to each of us. We will also have our usual committee meetings and our networking reception to provide opportunities to discuss issues and share ideas with our local, state, and federal counterparts during these very difficult and busy times.

We know that funds are tight at all levels of government but believe that our $150 registration fee for 14 NASBA-certified CPEs is a real training bargain. The Hotel is once again giving us a special $89 per night rate, well below the GSA lodging rate of $192. We will start our registration at 12 noon on Wednesday, June 1st and end at 12 noon on Friday, June 3rd. Mr. Richard Woodford of Labor OIG will begin our session with an informative workshop on “Auditor’s Responsibilities for Detecting Fraud.” Ann Calvaresi-Barr, Deputy IG for DOT, will provide our keynote presentation to kick off Thursday with “Audit and Investigative Processes, Successes, and Challenges. How to Streamline Operations and Have Greater Impact: A Perspective from the DOT/OIG.” This will be followed by:

- An Update on Key Financial Reporting Issues
- The Latest on Audit Risk Alerts
- And Several Other Interesting Topics

Additionally, Friday morning will be dedicated to a workshop on “Creativity, Intelligence, and Genius” which will provide each of us with practical strategies for developing our genius. Bonnie Miller, who was such a hit in Dover, will be returning to lead this very intriguing and informative workshop.

The total forum will provide 14 CPEs, and no prerequisites and/or advance preparation is required.

Course Level: Overview

Appropriate dress for all sessions is “Business Casual.”
