

The Program

We are very pleased to announce the next Mid-Atlantic Intergovernmental Audit Forum to be held September 2-4, 2009 at the beautiful Sheraton Convention Center Hotel in Atlantic City, New Jersey. The objective for this meeting is to cover a variety of interesting topics and to allow time for networking with our local, state, and federal counterparts. So please come and join us for what promises to be a very entertaining and educational session with ample time for you to network with your peers.

Some of the topics to be presented include:

- ◆ The Movement to International Audit Standards,
- ◆ Meeting the “Yellow Book” Documentation Requirements in Performance Audits,
- ◆ Improving the Quality of Single Audits,
- ◆ Performing More Audits with Less Resources,
- ◆ Deterring and Detecting Investment Fraud, and
- ◆ Managing Across Distances.

Additionally, Friday morning will be dedicated to a workshop on “Flawless Facilitation” presented by Dave Minionis who made such great presentations in Gettysburg in October 2004 and in Ocean City in June 2006. This workshop is designed to help increase group productivity, problem solving skills, increase group collaboration and buy-in, and shorten group decision making cycles.

Course Level: Overview

Appropriate dress for all sessions is Business Casual
