

Mark Funkhouser
City Auditor
City Auditor's Office
City Hall, Room 2103
414 East 12th Street
Kansas City, Missouri 64106
Telephone: (816) 513-3300
E-mail: mark_funkhouser@kcmo.org
Internet Website: <http://www.kcmo.org/auditor.nsf/web/home?opendocument>

Mr. Funkhouser has been City Auditor of Kansas City, Missouri since 1988. Before that he headed the performance audit group in the Division of State Audit, State of Tennessee. Mr. Funkhouser has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Thiel College, a Master of Social Work from West Virginia University, a Master of Business Administration degree from Tennessee State University and an interdisciplinary Ph.D. in public administration and sociology from the University of Missouri – Kansas City. He is a Certified Internal Auditor. He was editor of the Local Government Auditing Quarterly from 1990 to 1998 and is currently a regular columnist for that publication. In addition to his work as City Auditor, Mr. Funkhouser has been an adjunct instructor at Park University and currently serves as an adjunct instructor at the University of Missouri – Kansas City and the University of Kansas, teaching courses in public finance, budgeting and policy analysis.

Barb Hinton
Legislative Post Auditor
Kansas Legislative Division of Post Audit
800 Southwest Jackson Street, Suite 1200
Topeka, Kansas 66612-2212
Telephone: (785) 296-3792
E-mail: barbh@lpa.state.ks.us

Ms. Hinton is the Legislative Auditor in Kansas. For more than 25 years, her office has specialized in conducting performance audits of State agencies and programs. Ms. Hinton has been very active in the audit community. She has served 3 years on the U.S. Government Accountability Office's (GAO) Government Auditing Standards Advisory Council, has been President of the National State Auditors Association (NSAA), is Chair of NSAA's Performance Audit Committee, and is Chair of the Mid-America Intergovernmental Audit Forum. Ms. Hinton also has made numerous presentations to national, regional, and local audit and accounting groups, both professional and academic, and has conducted training workshops on performance auditing.

Albert J. "Robbie" Robinson, CPA
First Assistant Legislative Auditor
Office of Legislative Auditor
State of Louisiana
1600 North 3rd Street
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70804
Telephone: (225) 339-3875
E-mail: rrobinson@lla.state.la.us

Robbie is a Certified Public Accountant and the First Assistant Legislative Auditor. He has over 27 years of governmental auditing experience with the office, plus 5 years of governmental accounting, budgeting, and financial experience with other state agencies.

He served as the Director of Financial and Compliance Audit for the Louisiana Legislative Auditor's Office for 12 years prior to becoming First Assistant. He was responsible for the audit of state and local governmental entities performed by the Financial and Compliance Division. That division includes approximately 115 staff auditors, senior auditors, managers, and administrative support staff. Robbie served as Assistant Director for 7 years before he was appointed Director in 1993. He has served as chairman of the office's quality review committee and was a member of the office's personnel committee.

Robbie has participated in five National State Auditors Association's quality control reviews on the operations of the state auditors of South Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri (team leader), Nebraska (team leader), and Oklahoma (concurring reviewer). Currently, he serves as a reviewer on the Governmental Finance Officers Association Certificate of Achievement Program, as well as serving as a reviewer for the Association of School Board Officials. Robbie has also taught governmental accounting at Southern University in Baton Rouge.

In 1991 and 1996, Robbie received the Society of Louisiana Certified Public Accountants' Special Recognition Award for outstanding leadership and service to the CPA profession by directing efforts for the resolution of issues concerning local government audits in Louisiana.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Louisiana State University (LSU). Robbie lives in Zachary and has three children and three grandchildren.

Rex D. Archer, M.D., M.P.H.
Director of Health
City of Kansas City, Missouri Health Department
2400 Troost, Ste. 4000
Kansas City, MO 64108
Telephone: (816) 513-6252
E-mail: rex_archer@kcmo.org

Dr. Rex Archer is Director of Health for the City of Kansas City, Missouri, and President of the National Association of County & City Health Officials (NACCHO). He is responsible for safeguarding the public health of nearly 500,000 residents and a daytime population of almost one million people. The Kansas City Health Department is recognized as the first fully accredited public health agency in the state of Missouri. The Department has also been recognized by the Center for Disease Control (CDC) as one of the first 11 local health departments in the U.S. to meet the criteria for Public Health Ready, and as a MISSOURI MODEL AGENCY having 7 out of the 20 statewide best practices. Additionally, Dr. Archer oversees Kansas City's highly proficient and nationally accredited ambulance service, Metropolitan Ambulance Service Trust or MAST.

As an acknowledged authority on civilian bio-defense with over 25 years in protecting the public's health, Dr. Archer is the founding chairperson of NACCHO's Bioterrorism and Emergency Preparedness Task Force which has been in operation for over six years. Dr. Archer has testified on the need to provide a better level of protection against infectious diseases and bioterrorism threats for the U.S. Senate Appropriations subcommittee of the Labor Health & Education on Oct. 3, 2001 (October 4th the first inhalation anthrax case occurred), the U.S. Conference of Mayors Emergency, Safety & Security Summit in Washington D.C. on Public Health Response, the Women in Government State Directors Conference regarding state legislators' roles and oversight of state health departments and participated as a panelist in an interesting session entitled "Faith, Terror, Hope and Public Health" at the American Public Health Association's annual conference.

Dr. Archer has served on a number of national committees involved with Public Health Threats and Emergency Preparedness; he is a member of the Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services State-wide Bioterrorism Oversight committee and has been widely quoted by national media including the Boston Herald, New York Times, Wallstreet Journal, the Washington Post, MSNBC and CBS.

Prior to his present position in Kansas City, Dr. Archer completed his medical degree with the University of Kansas, his General Preventive Medicine Public Health Residency and Masters in Public Health degree at the University of

Rex D. Archer, M.D., M.P.H. (Continued)

Michigan and is recognized as a Public Health Leadership Institute Scholar by UCLA/CDC. He has served as Physician in Charge - Employee Health Programs, Ford Motor Company and local and state health positions in Maryland. Dr. Archer has been a primary leader in the adoption of policies to protect non-smokers from tobacco smoke in Maryland, Michigan, Missouri and the Ford Company.

Mike Eglinski
Audit Manager
21st Floor City Hall
414 East 12th Street
Kansas City, Missouri 64106
Telephone: (816) 513-3303
E-mail: mike_eglinski@kcmo.org

Mr. Eglinski worked in the Kansas City Auditor's Office since 1992. Prior to that, he studied political science and public administration at Stockholm University. He became interested in performance auditing while working on his masters thesis – a case study of a performance audit done by the Swedish National Audit Bureau.

The Honorable Nikki L. Tinsley
Inspector General
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency
1200 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, D.C. 20460
Telephone: (202) 566-0847
E-mail: tinsley.nikki@epa.gov

Nikki L. Tinsley has been the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Inspector General since November 1998. Prior to being appointed as Inspector General, she served for almost 2 years as EPA's Acting Inspector General. As the Inspector General, she is a member of the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency (PCIE) and chairs the PCIE Human Resources Committee. Ms Tinsley is a member of the Advisory Council on Government Auditing Standards and the Comptroller General's Domestic Working Group. Ms. Tinsley was the recipient of the 2004 AGA Distinguished Federal Leadership Award. Ms. Tinsley joined EPA's Office of Inspector General in 1990 when she was selected as Divisional Inspector General for the Office of Inspector General's Central Audit Division, directing audits in EPA Regions 7 & 8.

Before coming to EPA, Ms. Tinsley worked for 15 years in various audit capacities with the Department of Interior's Minerals Management Service and with the U.S. General Accounting Office. She led and participated in audits at large oil and gas and mineral companies and at a variety of Federal, State and local government agencies. While at Interior, she played a key role in establishing an audit program to ensure industry's accurate payment of over $4 billion annually in Federal and Indian revenues.

Ms. Tinsley has a Masters Degree in Management and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) licensed to practice in Colorado. She is a member of the Colorado Society of CPAs.

Terri Preeg Riggsby
Senior Auditor
Secretary of State Audits Division
State of Oregon
255 Capitol St. NE #500
Salem, Oregon 97310
Telephone: (503) 986-2180
E-mail: terri.e.preeg-riggsby@state.or.us

Terri Preeg Riggsby is currently a Senior Auditor with the Oregon Secretary of State, Audits Division. Terri has worked for the Secretary of State for almost two years and is responsible for leading performance audit engagements. Terri has a Masters of Public Administration/Natural Resource Policy and Watershed Management Professional Program certification from Portland State University. Prior to working for the Secretary of State, Terri worked for the City of Portland Development Commission and in the private sector for Hollywood Video Corporation, where she was the Energy Management Specialist. Terri has utilized Geographical Information Systems' (GIS) data analysis for the past several years, including in her role as an auditor; she recently worked with colleagues to develop a GIS audit checklist and data reliability testing procedures.

Joanne Walter
President
WalterPan LLC
Technology Square
75 Fifth Street, Suite 325
Atlanta, Georgia 30308
Telephone: (404) 920-1979
E-mail: jw@walterpan.com
Internet Website: www.walterpan.com

Joanne Walter is the president of WalterPan LLC, a company focused on providing technology solutions to the self service industry. She is also the founder of EcoInvestTM LLC, an equity fund and consulting company based upon technology solutions for environmental reclamation. Prior to founding these companies, Walter was a vice president at National Cash Register (NCR) Corporation. Businesses Ms. Walter has launched include NCR Self-Checkout Express and web-based as well as stand-alone kiosks across all industries for NCR.

Ms. Walter began her career with NCR in 1983 as a personal computer product manager in Augsburg, Germany and has held a number of product management, sales and marketing positions. In 1987, she assumed responsibility for managing NCR's personal computer line in Europe. She was appointed sales manager, Cooperative Marketing, for Latin America, Middle East and Africa markets in 1990 and was promoted to director of that organization in 1992. Ms. Walter was promoted to vice president, in the Retail Solution Group in September 1995, and ran new business start ups, such as the NCR Self Checkout business as well as the web-based kiosk business. She has ten patents awarded in self-checkout, web based kiosks and data mining. Fluent in German and Russian, Ms. Walter served in the U.S. Army prior to joining NCR.

Ms. Walter served on two task forces for the Governor of Georgia for Telecommunications and Information Technology as well as Strategic Industries and was a guest speaker on Technology at the G8 Summit at Sea Island in 2004. A former chairperson for NCR's United Way drive in the Metro-Atlanta area, Ms. Walter also founded Global SynapseTM, a non profit organization dedicated to implementing best practices between the United States and Russia.
www.globalsynapse.org.