MOUNTAIN & PLAINS INTERGOVERNMENTAL AUDIT FORUM

Doing More With Less:
Creative Approaches to Operating in a Complex Environment

August 25-26, 2011

DENVER, CO

FORUM INFORMATION

The Mountain and Plains Intergovernmental Audit Forum's (MPIAF) summer meeting will be held on Thursday and Friday, August 25-26, 2011 at the Magnolia Hotel in Denver, Colorado. The meeting's theme is "Doing More With Less: Creative Approaches to Operating in a Complex Environment." The agenda is filled with dynamic sessions that will keep audit professionals aware of current strategies and lessons learned relating to oversight and monitoring in difficult economic times and doing so with fewer available resources. The forum will also provide outstanding professional networking opportunities.

The meeting's two-day registration fee of $250 includes breakfast and lunch on both Thursday and Friday, and 15 continuing professional education (CPE) credits. An early registration discount is available.

View the tentative agenda, register for the meeting, and obtain updated information on the Forum's website at:
