Boston Chapter AGA New England Intergovernmental Audit Forum Spring Seminar

The AGA – Boston Chapter and the New England Intergovernmental Audit Forum are pleased to co-sponsor a Spring Training Seminar to be held at the Volpe Transportation Building Cambridge, MA on Thursday, April 15, 2010.

This Session will cover some very timely and varied topics for the members and guests of both organizations.

Scheduled to present at this session are:

Tammie Brown of US HHS on A-133 Updates

Bobby Derrick, former AGA National President on Ethics

Carole Buncher talking on the subject of Dealing with Difficult Interviewees

Seven (7) CPE's will be awarded for this full day of training. Cost will be $60 per attendee. Lunch will be "on your own". Hope to see you there and bring a friend!

There is no public parking at the Volpe Building. For transportation you should use the MBTA Red Line - Kendall Station or there are public garages in the area. All bags must be x-rayed and metal detectors are in use at the public entrance. Name tags or Federal Ids must be worn while in the building.

Any individual that may require special accommodations for the disabled should communicate this and include the information in their registration prior to the event.
