DATE: October 10, 2007

TO: National Intergovernmental Audit Forum Participants

FROM: Executive Director, Edith Pyles

SUBJECT: November 2007 Meeting Announcement

The next National Intergovernmental Audit Forum meeting will be held November 27-28, 2007 at the Doubletree Hotel in Crystal City, Virginia. Join us for a complimentary reception to kick off the meeting and network with your colleagues on November 27th at 5:30 p.m. The meeting sessions will be held from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on November 28th.

We have planned a terrific agenda! The morning part of the program will delve into a range of emerging audit, oversight, and governance issues related to non-profit organizations. Former Comptroller General of the United States, Charles Bowsher, will lead off the discussion followed by a session spearheaded by a panel of experts who will share their insights and experiences on this interesting topic. The Honorable Mark Funkhouser, Mayor and former City Auditor of Kansas City, Missouri, will speak on opportunities and challenges he is currently facing in his newly elected position. The final agenda will be posted on the web site.

The Doubletree Crystal City Hotel is conveniently located near a Metrorail line at 300 Army Navy Drive, Arlington, VA. They are holding a limited number of rooms at the rate of $201.00 per night, plus tax. Please make room reservations directly with the hotel at 1-800-222-8733 or 703-416-4100 no later than November 6, 2007. Please identify yourself as attending the National Intergovernmental Audit Forum meeting.

You may register and get updated information on the Intergovernmental Audit Forum's web page at www.auditforum.org. On-line registration is the preferred method for meeting registration, however, if you need a registration form faxed to you please contact Sebrina Chase at chasesi@gao.gov or 202-512-3068. The registration fee is $150 and we will be accepting credit cards as a form of payment. The conference offers 5 CPEs.
